CRITERION 4:

INFRASTRUCTURE AND LEARNING RESOURCES:

4.4.2 Procedures and policies for maintaining and utilizing physical, academic and support facilities -

The College has a good library with a collection of text books, reference books and In addition to this each department maintains a seminar library of its own. Students are allowed to borrow books from both these libraries. There is one playground within the lush green campus of the the college with badminton court and gym room. The main highlight of our college is the large stage with Goddess Saraswati sculpture as a symbol for prosperous learning and sustainable education in the college. We conduct Annual events and Programmes from this stage beautifully.

At the end of the financial year, the College carries out an Internal Financial Audit. by the committees constituted by the Staff Council. External audit is conducted annually the Commissionerate of Collegiate Education for academic and physical facilities. Annual Administrative audit is inspected by Regional Joint Director of Education. The data regarding the budget and allocation of Infrastructural resources are shown in the main AQAR report.
